Fortnightly laugh

I wanted to be a pet groomer, but I couldn't make heads or tails of it.

Why learn ...

Education is NOT the learning of facts but the training of the mind to think - Albert Einstein

Year 10 - Don't know what you want to do or what subjects to choose for senior studies?

Are you struggling when thinking about what you want to do when you first leave school or don't have answers for all those questions about subjects, jobs, life after school? Options Talking Careers will help. It's a series of videos and short activities that will help you find out about yourself, life, your values, strengths and interests. It comes with a career interest test that will get your research started. Click here to find out more.

Apprenticeships & Traineeships

A locksmith ... and what do they really do?

Locksmiths install and maintain locks and related security devices and systems. Day-to-day they may:

- assemble parts and sub-assemblies of precision instruments and locks
- dismantle precision instruments, locks, repairs and replaces defective parts, and reassembles articles using hand and power tools and specially designed machines
- install security systems, changes tumblers in locks, changes locks, cuts keys and opens locks by manipulation
- estimate costs and prepare quotes for repairs.

If you are looking for a job that requires you to work outdoors and with your hands this may be right up your alley. Check it out here.

Australian Apprenticeship Readiness Quiz

Australian Apprenticeship Readiness Quiz, found on the Australian Apprenticeships website, shows some of the key learning standards required to start an Australian Apprenticeship. The quiz is 10 questions long and should take approximately 10 minutes to complete. You should use a calculator to assist you. Click here to start the quiz.

In Year 12 and wanting an apprenticeship - start looking now!

It is sometimes challenging to work out where to start looking for an actual apprenticeship or traineeship. The Queensland Government's Find an apprenticeship or traineeship website is a good place to start. While it won't find you an employer to hire you, it will give you some ideas for looking about a potential employer including:

- Specific apprenticeship/traineeship job boards
- Using job search and government vacancies websites by entering a job title with 'apprentice' or 'trainee' and your chosen industry to narrow down results
- Talking with training organisations, local TAFEs and Australian Apprenticeship Support Network providers

Click on the link above for valuable links and information. Also check in with your VET Coordinator or School counsellor.

MEGT online Job Board

MEGT, a Group Training Organisation, provide employment and training options for school students and school leavers. They have an online Job Board listing school-based apprentice and trainee opportunities. Check it out and see your Career Counsellor/Guidance Officer/VET coordinator if you have any questions.

How do I apply for the Defence Force?

The ADF recruitment process is designed to ensure you have the qualities needed, while helping you identify the ideal role in the Navy, Army or Air Force. Visit the Defence Recruitment website to find out if you are eligible to join and to access the six steps in the recruitment process. The six steps are:

1. Apply online
2. Complete a Job Opportunities Assessment
3. Attend a virtual YOU Session (Your Opportunities Unlimited Session)
4. Attend assessment and Officer Selection (if you are wanting this pathway)
5. Take a Fitness Test if required
6. Attend Enlistment and Appointment day

On the site you will also find information videos that will answer many of your questions, along with information on:

- Do I need written references or just listed references on my application?
- When do ADFA applications close?
- What happens after I submit my application?
- Is the application process the same for Officer entry and General entry?
- My application is due soon, but I don't have all the required paperwork. What should I do?

Career Exploration

Aged and Disabled Carer

Also known as Personal Care Worker or Personal Carer, Aged or disabled carers support elderly and disabled people by helping them with daily activities and personal tasks. This can include assisting with eating, showering, dressing and cleaning, providing companionship, emotional support and transportation. Build your skills, build your resume

Everyone has a metaphorical 'skills bucket' they carry with them throughout their life and career. Your bucket is full of skills you may have picked up at school, in different jobs or even life situations. Ever wondered how many skills you have in your bucket? These could include:

- Time management – obtained at school when you were learning how to prioritise study with completing assignments, or in the workplace when you managed several tasks with competing deadlines.

- Self-motivation – gained through completing a VET qualification, school assignments, university degree or traineeship.
- Enhanced communication – achieved by undertaking additional training courses or navigating relationships in your personal life.

Employment, Job and Labour Market Info

Can't decide between a Registered Nurse, an Enrolled Nurse and a Midwife?

Registered nurses (RN) assess, plan, provide and evaluate preventative, curative and rehabilitative care for patients and supervise other nursing staff. They work in a wide variety of settings such as hospitals, aged care and other health care facilities and private medical practices. To become an RN, you need to complete a three-year Bachelor of Nursing at a university or other accredited institute of higher education. RNs are required to be registered with the Australian Health Practitioner Regulation Agency: Nursing and Midwifery Board of Australia. You can obtain more information about this occupation from the myfuture website (you will need to Log in or Sign up to enter this free site) and the Good Universities Guide website (this site has a list of nursing specialisations).

Enrolled Nurses (EN) under the direction and supervision of Registered Nurses, assist with the provision of acute, preventative, curative, rehabilitative and the day-to-day personal nursing care of patients. They work in hospitals, aged-care facilities, the community and other healthcare settings. To become an EN in Australia, the minimum level of study is the Diploma of Nursing (18 months – 2 years), delivered through TAFE or an accredited private Registered Training Organisation. After graduation, ENs apply for registration with the Australian Health Practitioner Regulation Agency: Nursing and Midwifery Board of Australia to practice as an Enrolled nurse. You can obtain more information about this occupation from the myfuture website (you will need to log in or Sign up to enter this free site) and the Good Universities Guide website.

Midwives provide care and advice to women during pregnancy, labour and childbirth and postnatal care for women and babies in a range of settings such as the home, community, hospitals, clinics and health units. They are also known as a Certified Midwife or Registered Midwife and can specialise as a Community Midwife and/or Midwife Practitioner. A bachelor degree in midwifery is needed to work as a Midwife. Some Midwives complete postgraduate studies. Midwives are required to be registered with the Australian Health Practitioner Regulation Agency: Nursing and Midwifery Board of Australia. You can obtain more information about this occupation from Your Career and the Good Universities Guide website.

Students' career aspirations do not reflect education plans or labour market demand, says OECD

One in five students and one in three socially disadvantaged students across the OECD expect to go into desirable jobs that often require at least a bachelor's degree but at the same time do not expect to go to university, according to a new OECD report. The State of Global Teenage Career Preparation found a significant misalignment of teenagers' career expectations and the labour market. The study of 690 000 teenagers in 81 countries, based on data from the 2022 edition of the OECD PISA survey, also found that social background plays a bigger role in determining a student's educational ambition than academic ability. On average across OECD countries, low performing students with socio-economically advantaged backgrounds are more likely to expect to complete university education than high performing students from the lowest socio-economic backgrounds. Click here to read this most interesting report.

Urban and Regional Planner

Urban and regional planners provide advice and develop policies related to urban and regional development. They conduct analysis and planning activities considering the economic, environmental and social impact of land development. They also provide guidance to governments and organisations relating to land use and future development. It is a job suitable for people with an interest in geography, community and government. The ability to think critically, analyse systems and listen actively are important. There is a great shortage of Urban and Regional Planners. Financial Assistance & Scholarships

Scholarship options in Australia

Good Universities Guide has put together information about scholarship options across Australia. Scholarships come in many shapes and sizes, some of which cover tuition fees (in part or full), some cover living and accommodation expenses and some cover the whole lot or provide a payment that students may use as they see fit. Similarly, some may cover students for the duration of their course, while others only cover students for a year or require them to reapply. There are three types of scholarships:

- Federal government scholarships
- Education provider scholarships
- Private organisation scholarships

Given the number of organisations offering scholarships, it can be very difficult to find all the information yourself. You can also use their Scholarships search tool. Click here to read more about:

- Federal Government scholarships

- Say Our Name: Australian South Sea Islanders
- Discovering Ancient Egypt
- SparkLab
- Auslan Interpreted Highlights Tour
- Highlights Tour
- Exploring Toys
- And more ...

Use the school holidays wisely - Work experience and/or exploration may be a good option

An important strategy in career exploration is experiencing the job you are interested in. This can be undertaken in many ways:

- Work observation – spending a day or more with someone already in the job at their workplace
- Career interview – developing a list of questions and interviewing someone already in a job you are investigating
- Work experience – spending some time (a week if possible) in the job
- Investigating courses by visiting institutions and talking to them about their courses
- Getting a part-time job or volunteering in a job you are interested in
- Doing a course or workshop that relates to the type of work you want to do.

The school holidays are a perfect time to do some of these activities. If you need help organising an activity, speak to your school Guidance Officer/Counsellor/VET Coordinator for some assistance.

Interstate and International

Applying for courses interstate

If you are thinking about applying to a university outside Queensland, you need to apply to the relevant Tertiary Admission's Centre (TAC). Find course information on the TAC websites below. Preparing for an open day

Choosing a university can be difficult and you'll want all the information you can get before making your decision. You've probably already asked the key questions:

- Does the university specialise in the subjects I want to study?
- Does it rate well academically?
- Does its location work for me?

While you can learn a lot from a website, there's no substitute for seeing a university in real life. Open days are your chance to get to know the university's staff, students and alumni. But to really experience the campus and atmosphere, you'll need a plan of attack. There's often more to see than you can squeeze into a day. Click here to find out about:

- Express your interest
- The inside track
- Get connected
- Embrace the unexpected
- Hit the clubs

South Burnett Careers Market

Discover career pathways available to you in the South Burnett at this hands-on and interactive event proudly hosted by TAFE Queensland Kingaroy. The market will be held 24 July from 8:30 to 3pm at the TAFE Queensland Kingaroy. Click here for more information including opportunities to:

- Tour your local TAFE Queensland campus and speak directly to teachers about courses, career pathways and study options.
- Get involved in hands-on activities and interactive displays.
- Visit displays and talk with local employers and representatives from apprenticeship providers, universities, local businesses, council and more.

Toowoomba ADF Careers Expo

Join the ADF at their upcoming ADF Careers Expo being held on 16 July from 9am to 5pm. You will be able to speak with current serving members to see which Australian Defence Force career is best suited to you. This is your opportunity to discover the range of jobs available in the Navy, Army and Air Force, ranging from (but not limited to) trades, transport, logistics, engineering and combat. Activities on the day will include:

- Augmented reality and flight Simulators
- Weapon and vehicle displays
- Military equipment displays
- ADF Careers Promotions team on hand to answer all your questions

Year 12 post school information management

If you are in Year 12 you should start a folder of information you will need later in the year and early next year. You can add to it during the year. Items that could be placed in this folder include:

- Learning Unique Identifier (LUI) number and password for your Learning Account so you can access your Year 12 results early. You will also be required to know your LUI to complete your QTAC application.
- Tax File Number (TFN), which you will need when applying for a HELP loan next year. You also need a TFN if you want to be paid for a full-time or part-time job.
- Unique Student Identifier (USI) A USI is your individual education number for life. Without one, you can't get Commonwealth financial assistance or your qualification or statement of attainment.
- The QTAC Guide, which you may receive in June or you can access online at QTAC website.
- Course, job and tertiary entry information you gather at career markets/expos, institution open days, TSXPO, etc.
- The list of courses you are considering (if you haven't a clue, make an appointment to see your Guidance Counsellor/Officer ASAP!!).
- If you're thinking about Uni, a list of Pathway and Early Offer schemes for the university/ies you are interested in studying at
- Handouts on tertiary entry you are given at Year 12 assemblies, expos and lunchtime talks.
- Information about available scholarships and tips for submitting a great application.
- Additional qualifications you might wish to submit as part of your QTAC application and/or portfolio particularly if applying for EAS
- Any other information related to your plans for 2026.

External assessment timetable for 2025 Year 12 exams

The QCAA external assessment timetable 2025 includes the external assessments for General and General (Extension) subjects. The timetable will be updated in Term 3 to include language and non-language Senior External Examinations (SEEs). SEEs are 100% external examinations and are different from the mainstream General subjects. Click here to access the 2025 external assessment timetable.

Study Skills and Wellbeing

Exam stress and top tips to de-stress

The following tips are adapted from an article from the University of Queensland's Health Hub. It is difficult to avoid the worry of exams, looming deadlines and challenging expectations (our own and other's). Everybody deals with stress differently, so it is important to recognise your own signs and take control before they control you. The following behaviours can be signs of stress.

- Irregular sleep patterns
- Short temper and irritability
- That gut feeling (butterflies)
- Finding it difficult to relax or unwind
- Overreacting to situations
- Comfort food snacking or loss of appetite

If you are experiencing one, many, or all of these signs, you need to do something about it to help you handle the demands you face. Click here to read more about the following tips:

- Set the tone for your day
- Create a schedule
- Divide your day up
- Take a break
- Turn your phone off in study period
- Eat for your brain
- Use your nerves, don't let them use you
- Shake it off
- Warn your loved ones
- Prioritise your study

If you continue to experience any of the above symptoms or do not feel well and happy in yourself, definitely ask for support from your Guidance Officer, School Counsellor, your family doctor, parents/guardians. Smart thinkers know when a little bit of help can really make the difference :)

Regaining your life balance – the Wheel of Life

When study and life demands take over your life, it's all too easy to find yourself off balance, not paying enough attention to other important areas of your life. This is where the Wheel of Life activity on the MindTools website can be useful. It helps you take a 'helicopter view' of your life, so you can bring things back into balance and manage your life more effectively. The MindTools website has other topics (e.g. Time Management and Decision Making) you might find useful. Check it out.

Something to think about

Learning is the first essential skill to achieve any change. Learn to ask more patient questions, not only of other people and situations, but also of yourself. Learn how to seek out, hunt down and dig deeper for even better answers. There are rarely right and wrong answers to life's bigger questions, there are only ideas and solutions that are more useful or helpful than the others.

You're not alone

Balancing the demands of school studies and your home life can sometimes be a challenge, but it's important to remember you're not alone. The World Health Organisation notes that good mental health is when 'a state of wellbeing in which the individual realises his or her own abilities, can cope with the normal stresses of life, can work productively and fruitfully, and is able to make a contribution to his or her community'. In the same way we can experience physical illness, we can also experience mental illness.

According to Queensland Health, mental health can affect your thinking, emotional stability and social life. It can also impact your ability to work, study, carry out daily tasks and your relationships. Payment options

TAFE Queensland have a range of payment options, concessions, loans and scholarships you may be eligible for to assist you with the cost of your study. You may also be eligible for a TAFE Queensland payment plan to help you pay your course fees over the course of your studies. If you are asking yourself if you can actually afford to study, there are a number of options that could make your study at TAFE Queensland more affordable. Click here to check out:

- What it costs
- How you can pay

- Yarrabilba - This campus is an inclusive, engaging and responsive place that enables a thriving community to connect, learn, earn and innovate.

Which is the best university?

All Australian universities offer accredited courses that can lead to employment. Consequently, the better question is 'Which is the best university for me?' Consider the following when researching universities.

- Is the course offered at this university a pathway to the job I eventually want?
- Where is this university located? Can I realistically travel there? What are the transport options?
- Will the university help me gain work experience in my career area of interest while I do the course?
- How hard is it to get into this course at this university?
- Are the courses at this university full-fee or are they subsidised by the Commonwealth Government and eligible for HECS-HELP?
- If the courses are full-fee, is the institution accredited for FEE-HELP?
- Where do students of this course at this university go after they graduate?
- What support services are available at this university?
- What co-curricular activities (sport, clubs, etc.) are available at this university?
- What is the 'atmosphere' or working and social environment of the university like?
- Is it important to me to go to the same university as my friends?
- Does the university offer overseas study options?

These websites can help you with your research.

- QILT (Quality Indicators for Learning and Teaching) can help you compare study experience and employment outcomes data from Australian higher education institutions to select the institution with all the qualities you want.
- The Good Universities Guide has a course and institution search function and information on careers and scholarships. It also has a rating section for all Australian universities.

Adjustment Schemes for Undergraduate Applicants

CQU considers a number of adjustment factors to selection ranks for undergraduate applications that may apply to you. Adjustment factors that CQUniversity take into consideration when assessing an applicant's Selection Rank are regional or equity-based. These schemes apply to all undergraduate courses except for CQU's Bachelor of Education courses. Click here to read more about their individual adjustment.

Certificate, diploma and undergraduate courses available at CQU

CQUniversity offers a wide range of certificate, diploma and undergraduate courses. Click here to find a list of degrees and TAFE courses they offer along with study timetables and information on how to apply.

Adjustment Factors - they may help

Griffith University offers a range of adjustment factors on the basis of subjects, Brisbane community engagement, Gold Coast and Logan priority access, Educational Access Scheme, Elite Athlete Support Policy and Incremental adjustments for the Bachelor of Medical Science.

- The Year 12 subject adjustment for current Year 12's, offers up to 6 adjustments (2.00 adjustments per subject/course) for a broad range of Senior subjects and up to 4 adjustments for university studies completed as part of the GUESTS program.
- If you live in Brisbane, Logan, Ipswich or Redlands, the Brisbane Community Engagement scheme may entitle you to 2 adjustment factors
- The Gold Coast and Logan Campus Priority Access Scheme improves access to programs offered at Gold Coast and Logan campuses. Applicants who are new to tertiary study and live within the listed catchment areas are eligible for 2.00 adjustments.
- The Educational Access Scheme is for School Leavers who have experienced financial and/or educational disadvantage. Max of 8.00 adjustments.
- Elite Athlete Adjustment recognises the challenges and impacts that sporting commitments can have on the completion of their studies. You can apply for adjustment factors as part of your QTAC application, with up to 6.00 selection ranks able to be applied to your ATAR/selection rank.
- Incremental Adjustments for the Bachelor of Medical Science

Please Note:

- Maximum adjustments that you can receive under all schemes is capped at 8.00.
- You do not need to apply separately – this is part of the QTAC application.
- Some exclusions apply – refer to website for further details as each scheme outlines the degrees that are excluded from the program.

Griffith Film School Portfolio Application Webinar

As part of your application, Griffith use a portfolio admission process for potential students, so you can showcase your creativity. A portfolio is a collection of your work. It allows us to get to know you, and is your chance to show us your skill, creativity, personality and potential. Admission to the Bachelor of Animation and the Bachelor of Film and Screen Media Production is via portfolio. Limited offers may be made in later rounds via ATAR/rank should places remain.

There are two admission pathways to the Bachelor of Game Design and Production. Applicants may be considered via submission of a portfolio, or via guaranteed ATAR/rank of 70.00 or higher.

Griffith will be hosting a portfolio application webinar on 22 July. Click here to find out more and to register.

Trimester 2 Head Start applications

Year 11 and 12 students who wish to make a start on their university studies in the Head Start program can apply now. You can choose to study one subject through the Head Start On Campus or Online program. Applications close 23 June so check it out and talk with your parents and Guidance Officer/School Counsellor.

Using VET and other alternative qualifications for competitive entry to Griffith University

Griffith accepts standalone VET qualifications from current Year 12 and mature applicants and acknowledges that they are a highly effective pathway to university. Students with a VET qualification completed at high school will continue to be considered for admission whether or not they are ATAR-eligible. QTAC will consider your VET qualification in conjunction with other senior subjects or as a standalone qualification when you are applying for entry into Griffith courses. VET qualifications for entry into certain Griffith courses/programs will not be considered, so check the link for more information.

Accommodation options

Finding the right place to live is a big part of settling into student life. With options available both on and off campus, UQ Services can help you find your new home. If you're a new regional, interstate or international student, they can guarantee you a place at one of their approved accommodation providers or residential colleges before you arrive in Brisbane. It's never too early to learn more about guaranteed accommodation. Residential options include On-campus and off-campus and an under 18 supervision program. Find out more here.

Changes to Bachelor of Veterinary Science for 2026

UQ have changed their prerequisites for entry into the Bachelor of Science for 2026. The Queensland Year 12 (or equivalent) prerequisites are now:

- General English subject (Units 3 & 4, C)

- Chemistry (Units 3 & 4, C)
- Mathematical Methods (Units 3 & 4, C);
- One of Physics or Biology (Units 3 & 4, C).

Applicants must also complete Casper, a situational judgement test in the year of application. Casper test dates are 19 June, 5 August, 11 September and 5 October.

In 2025, a new selection method will be introduced to determine which applicants receive offers for 2026. Applicants will be ranked using a Combined Final Selection Index that considers both their adjusted ATAR or tertiary study selection rank and their result in the situational judgment test. The combined final selection rank will be a combination of both academic and non-academic performance as follows:

- 60% from the adjusted ATAR/tertiary study selection rank (academic performance)
- 40% from the Casper Test score (non-academic performance)

Provisional entry for the Doctor of Medicine (MD)

Applicants are now selected for all offers using a merit order rank which is derived by:

- percentile rank in the MMI (Multi-mini interview) = 50%
- percentile rank in the UCAT = 25%
- percentile rank in the Adjusted ATAR = 25%

This rank was derived by QTAC across those applicants who met the ATAR better or equal to an ATAR 95.00 threshold

- Median UCAT and median adjusted ATAR to receive a full offer UCAT aggregate
3110 Adjusted ATAR 99.95

If you don't meet the entry requirements for the provisional entry pathway, consider applying for one of our recommended bachelor's degrees. You can then apply for the graduate entry pathway in your final year of study. You can meet the other requirements for this pathway (e.g. subject prerequisites) while you complete your bachelor's degree.

University of New England

Early Entry Offer

UNE Early Entry is open to all Year 12 applicants, whether or not you're expecting to receive an ATAR. Early Entry relies on your school's assessment of your attributes and abilities, your ability to work and learn independently and your overall potential for academic success. Based on your school's recommendation, UNE will guarantee you an offer to start with them in 2026 but if you are not eligible for one of your preferences, you will receive an offer for an alternative course. Click here for more information and application process. Applications close in July so check with the University for actual closing date.

Residential Colleges

UNE's Residential Colleges provide more than shelter, food and friendship. Finding the balance between study and your social life can be difficult in the first months of your university experience. College provides support to ensure that your time at Uni is as productive as it is enjoyable. Student support includes:

- Academic support: Academic mentors (or tutors) are senior students who commit additional time to guiding academic progress of the College residents. These senior students have consistently shown a high level of achievement during their own studies and will be able to help you with understanding assessment requirements, tutorial questions and general content help throughout your time at Uni.
- Personal support: The combined challenges of finding your feet in a new location, making new friends and keeping pace with assignments, can be difficult to juggle. UNE Colleges provide the support you need to make this transition easier, to manage your priorities and to help you have fun at the same time.

For more information contact the university or check out their website.

University of Southern Queensland

Adjustment factors pathway

Adjustment factors may increase your selection rank through the allocation of additional points in certain circumstances such as where you live and subjects you passed at school. UniSQ gives a total of 10 adjustment factors across their pathway schemes. You do not have to apply for these adjustment factors as they are automatically applied by QTAC when your application is assessed. It is good to know if you are eligible for any adjustment factors as this may influence your QTAC course preferencing. Click here for more information including:

- First in family
- Location adjustments
- School adjustments
- Supporting you and your journey to UniSQ
