Delivery mode
Online course. Internet access essential.
Online lessons are delivered through the EQ web conference.
The English course follows the Australian Curriculum which is studied in all Australian states. The course is available in an electronic format which is available through Blackboard. A limited number of book resources are provided to support some of the units. All other resources are in digital format and are incorporated into the electronic courses. Students may request a printed copy of each unit but will need access to the digital resources to complete the work. It should be noted that access to a computer is needed.

Time commitment
There are three English lessons to be completed each week. Each lesson is approximately 70 minutes in duration will be delivered using Web Conferencing (through Blackboard Collaborate). The length of each scheduled lesson may vary depending upon the content being covered. However, students should allocate a 70 minute block in their timetable for these. Students will be advised at the beginning of each unit what content will be covered as a scheduled lesson and what should be completed independently.
