Delivery mode
Online course. Internet access essential. Online lessons are delivered through the EQ web conference.

Time commitment
Students enrolling in this subject are required by the Queensland Curriculum and Assessment Authority to engage for a minimum of 55 hours each semester in order to attain credit and maintain OP eligibility.

Students are required to participate in online class lessons which will run for up to 60 minutes twice each week.

In addition to the online lessons, students are required to watch Tutorial videos and complete tasks set by the teacher for a further minimum 110 minutes.

Prerequisites
Students studying Ancient History are required to be studying QCAA Board English and whilst a minimum of C in Year 10 is required, it is recommended that students have achieved a B in English and in a Social Science subject due to high literacy requirements.

Course outline
Year 11
Semester 1
Studies in Archaeology
Studies in Funerary Practices
Semester 2
Studies in Regional Change
Studies of the Everyday Lives of People in Ancient Societies

Year 12
Semester 3
A Study in Pharaonic Power in Egypt
Studies in Conflict
Semester 4
Studies of Power
Europe in Transition

Assessment
Students complete three items of assessment in semesters 1 and 3 and two assessment items in Semester 2 and 4. These could consist of objective/short answer tests, response to stimulus tests, research assignments (written and multi-modal) and extended written responses.

Diagnostic assessment is ongoing throughout each semester.

Assessment items are assessed using some or all of the following criteria:
- designing and using a research process
- critical use of sources
- communicating historical knowledge

Requirements
- computer headset with microphone
- access to Microsoft Office
- internet access essential
- CD/DVD access essential

Textbooks
Year 11

Year 12

NOTE: Textbooks must be purchased by students. Textbooks are NOT supplied by the school.

DISCLAIMER: All information contained is accurate at the time of publication.