Delivery mode
Online course. Internet access essential.
Online lessons are delivered through the EQ web conference.

Time commitment
The minimum time allocation per semester per senior subject is 55 hours instruction.

Prerequisites
A high level of competency in Year 10 English expression, comprehension and analytical skill is essential and students who have not completed year 10 Art should provide a folio of work demonstrating their abilities to the Art Department prior to enrolling in year 11. Students intending to enroll in Year 12 Art must have completed either Year 11 Art or submit a folio to the Art Department for enrolment approval.

Course outline
Year 11 is comprised of three experimental folios and one body of work. Students follow teacher-initiated focuses as they engage in making and appraising experiences in response to nominated concepts using the Inquiry/Learning Model: research, development, resolution and reflection. The media areas explored in Year 11 are 2D, 3D and Mixed Media.

Year 12 is comprised of two bodies of work and an extension folio. Students select their own focus or focuses to engage in making and appraising experiences in response to a nominated concept using the Inquiry/Learning Model: research, development, resolution and reflection.

Assessment
Formative and summative items are designed to assess the following criteria in Years 11 and 12:
- Visual Literacy – making
- Application – making
- Appraising – appraising

The following items are assessed in each of the four units:
- developmental or preparatory work – making
- resolved artwork/s – making
- written task – appraising

In Year 12 assessment is both formative and summative. The following items are assessed in each of the two bodies of work:
- developmental work – making
- resolved artwork/s – making
- extended written tasks – appraising

The extension folio builds on Body of Work 1 and/or Body of Work 2.

Requirements
- Art reference materials are made available to students by download from the subject Blackboard Course or from other BrisbaneSDE approved web sites.

NOTE: All art materials are to be purchased by the student. These can be purchased as needed in the course and/or in consultation with an art teacher.

DISCLAIMER: All information contained is accurate at the time of publication.